The algorithm, utilized in clinical practice since November 2022, helps guide patient guide quickly and efficiently, condensing a large amount of PROs information into an easily interpretable summary score.